Illinois State University

Office of the President

Welcome to the 1991-92 Academic Year!

We at Illinois State University are pleased to have you on campus for a new year.

As you know, ISU offers a wide variety of academic and cultural programs and activities which combine for one of the best undergraduate experiences in the State of Illinois. Many academic and social events have been scheduled for this coming year with the goal of providing something for every interest. Part of the value of your college education will be gained through taking advantage of opportunities to interact with diverse groups and to become involved with new and interesting endeavors.

Programs are designed to assist you in the pursuit of your formal education, as well as to offer opportunities for you to become involved in extracurricular activities. I encourage you to utilize these programs and services in order to make your year a productive and rewarding one.

Best wishes for a successful and enjoyable academic year.

Regards,

Thomas P. Wallace
President

A day in the life of . . . REGGIE REDBIRD!

You may be wondering who this strange bird-like creature is, but by the time you've earned your diploma here, Reggie will have become a familiar face! There's never a dull moment when Reggie Redbird, I.S.U.'s charismatic mascot, is around!

WELCOME TO ISU!

STUDENT BODY BOARD OF DIRECTORS

WE'RE HERE !!!

Clockwise from left - Dave DeRousse, Eric Wiltfang, Romney Ruder, Randy Fox, Diane Booth, Tricia Reimer, Julie Meyer, not pictured is Pat Smith.

What we're all about...

As the primary student organization representing all students, the Student Body Board of Directors promotes the concept of "students helping students."

SBBB is committed to serving, representing, and working for meaningful changes for students. All students should utilize SBBB services and are encouraged to participate in SBBB activities.

The SBBB works to coordinate and provide "student helping student" services designed to fill those needs

Services Provided

- Tenant Union
- Yearbook / Student Record
- Senior Portraits
- Information Databank
- Student Legal Services
- Campus Recycling
- Party Patrol
- Student / Community Liason

which cannot be met within the university or community.

The SBBB attempts to coordinate and relay student needs to those who make administrative decisions. In addition, the SBBB takes an active role in bringing about changes to improve the environment in which the student learns, works, lives and grows.

Through the guidelines, manuals, and services SBBB provides, we strive to meet the needs of all students.

A Letter From the President

On behalf of the rest of the student body, I would like to welcome you here to the university. You are embarking on a new career and we are here to help you in any way possible. Our job as leaders is to govern the student body. We work with university officials, administrators, other student and town leaders to set policies that will best suit you. It is important that you as a student stay up on issues, because the decisions we make affect you and the entire student body.

Our positions go a lot further than just governing the students. The student body elected us into office and our job is to serve you. Through services such as the tenant union and student rights and advocacy, we are able to give help to students who are in need.

I wish you the best in the rest of your college career. Remember, you are the future of Illinois State University. Good luck with everything.

Sincerely,

Romney J. Ruder

GOALS FOR THIS YEAR

With qualified board members and YOUR help, the SBBD hopes to create a new image for itself. An important goal for Vice President Pat Smith is to increase student voter registration and participation. He also wants effective communication within the board in order to promote student involvement in University decisions.

Student Legal Services Director Eric Wiltfang explains that he wants the entire student body to become aware of legal services; because student fees pay for this service. In addition, Eric wants to increase relations with landlords and tenants, help GAMMA when needed for shuttle bus services and make pre-existing operations more efficient.

Community Relations Director Julie Meyer wants to expand Greek/resident relations within the community. Also, Julie wants to publish an article in the Normal town newspaper informing town residents what students are doing for the community.

Public Relations director Randy Fox plans on forming a yearbook staff (applications available) and offering the yearbook to all ISU students: to make the yearbook a tradition at ISU. Additionally, Randy wants to make students aware of what ISU has to offer by providing publicity for all organizations. Randy supports student leadership, and encourages students to use the SBBD services to their fullest extent.

Internal Affairs director Tricia Reimer will control the budget and keep an accurate agenda including minutes at the executive board meetings. Tricia welcomes any student to the board meetings and says that the SBBD door is always open to concerns or problems a student may have.

Student Rights and Advocacy Director David Derousse wants to increase student participation in student government by publicizing it's services. Such services would include: a recycling program for ISU, and consumer information and representation for all students.

Finally, the Information and Research director Dianne Booth plans on updating the database. This will make it a valuable informational resource. Also, she will conduct a large-scale comprehensive study of the sexual assault problem on campus while providing survey research for the board's decisions.

GRADUATES ADVICE

- GET INVOLVED - college is more than books
- Try to pick up a copy of the Vidette every morning to find out what's happening on campus
- Get to know your TA's and Professors personally - it may help when grade time comes
- Take your validated student ID wherever you go
- Don't sit around your dorm room - get out and see everything
- Weekends start on Thursday
- Get a good fake ID
- It's not what you know, but who
- Be open to new experiences
- Never register for an 8:00
- Study hard straight from the beginning
- Never buy a recommended book
- Learn how to use a computer
- Go to class, get to know professors and realize ISU is unlike no other university
- Do your homework
  - Remember that you probably irritate your roommate as much as he/she irritates you
  - Keep your room neat on weekends - parents are known for surprise visits
- Don't eat too much
- Take the hardest classes over the summer at a community college
- The Student Body Board of Directors sponsors the yearbook, call them for information if you would like to join the staff
- Never start a five-page paper the night before it's due
- Express yourself by voting in all campus elections

Throwing darts is a popular sport at ISU, for guys and girls.

- The computer doesn't hate everyone - just you
- Keep your door locked - things have a habit of walking away
- Be careful not to overindulge in too many long-distance calls; the phone bill is a killer

Walking your dog through the Quad is a definite way to pick up girls!

TO INCOMING FRESHMEN

- A road trip to Champaign is a cheap way to get-away-from-it-all on a weekend night. (And really cheap on Sunday nights ... 25¢ beers!)
- If your roommate disappears, remember there are 24 hours in a day
- Make reservations early for parental invasions
- It's not always a good idea to move in with your best friend
- Find a good set of test files
- If you cram too much in the washer, nothing will get clean

You will spend countless hours in the many computer labs across campus.

- Apply for all scholarships that you hear about
- Manage your time
- A student is a job. A 24 hour a day, 7 day a week, 40 weeks a year. Sleeping is optional
- Save your blow off classes for senior year
- Always arrange a meeting before giving someone you don't know a ride home; you never know what they might be like

- This is not like high school; effort will not guarantee good grades
- A hair dryer is not the only necessity in college life - don't forget quarters for the washer, an umbrella, aspirin, a dictionary, light bulbs, hangers, an alarm clock, calculator, phone book from home and a combination bottle and can opener
- Have fun, the four years go by fast
- Don't get behind the game now, you will regret it later
- Remember to pay back your student loan or they will repossess your education
- Don't just go to school, live it
- Don't take anything too seriously, keep it all in perspective and enjoy all there is to offer

The Pi pledge class of Gamma Phi Beta celebrating with their new pledge sisters on bid night. Bid nite is the final night of sorority formal rush.

Go Redbirds!

You will make special college friendships that will last a lifetime!

Go Greek!

Greek life offers great opportunities in leadership, scholarship and fun at ISU. Involvement in a sorority or fraternity is a great way to make new friends and enhance campus life. There are more than 3000 Greeks at ISU!

Aside from social activities, Greeks participate in philanthropies and fund raising events, academics are also a big part of Greek life. Individual houses have their own scholarship programs where members are required to meet certain academic standards. Most of the Greek organizations have houses that members are invited to live in after pledging and initiation.

Formal rush is your introduction to the Greek system at ISU. Rush week is full of activities created for "rushees" to meet many new friends. The friendships you form will be strong and lasting and will build lifetime memories. On the next two pages you'll find all the Greek organizations offered here at ISU. Becoming a member of a fraternity or sorority is a great college experience. Best of luck finding your home away from home!

Residence Hall Living . . .

You may have chosen Hewett/Manchester as your first choice for dorm living.

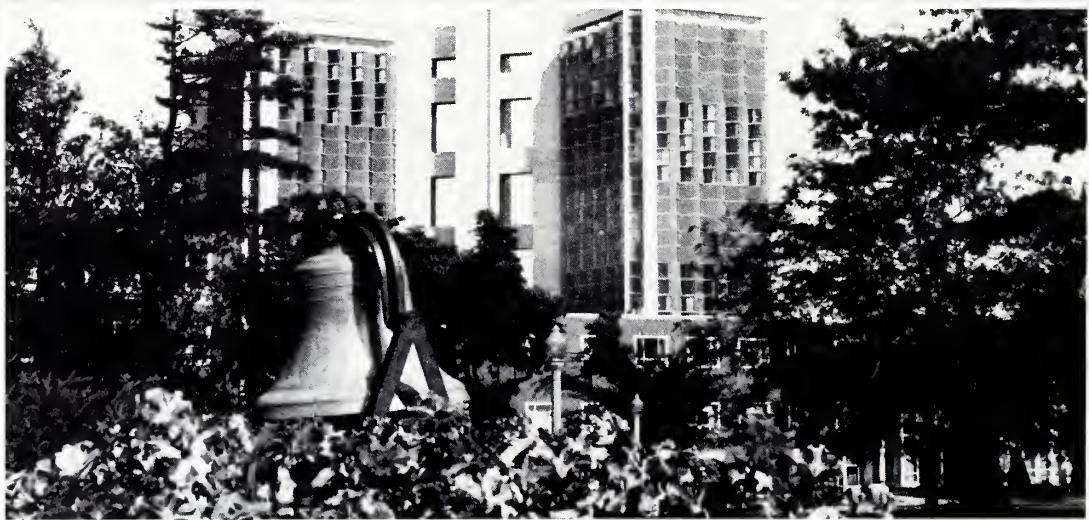

Most of you won't realize just how good you have it this year! You will never hear "Are you almost done" or "You've been on the phone too long #?*!/" thanks to Telecommunications, as of July 27, the new phone system will be fully operational in the residence halls. Among the many new features included will be PRIVATE LINES, automatic call-back, call waiting, call hold, distinctive ringing and more! Yipee!

Watterson Towers is the largest residence hall in the world, named in honor of the late Dr. Arthur Watterson, Head of ISU's Geography Department, a prominent community leader and a relative of Randy Fox! This dual 27 story hall was built in 1967 and houses over 2400 ISU students!

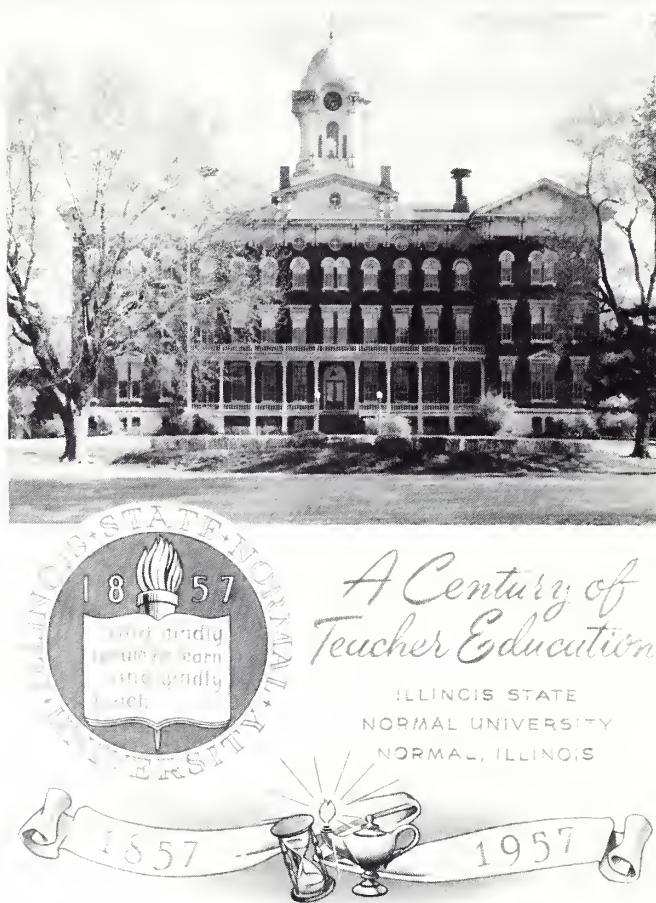

The residence halls provide endless opportunities for making friends!

There are many people that we meet in our lives but only a very few will make lasting impressions on your minds and hearts. It is these people that we will think of often and who will always remain important to us as true friends.

Old Main

As Illinois' first state university, Illinois State Normal University was also the first university specifically created for the purpose of training young men and women in teaching. The first graduating class had a total of 11 students.

Old Main, built in 1860, was the first prominent university building, complete with its three story structure and bell tower. From 1860 to 1892, Old Main housed all of the University's activities including the library and first museum.

Old Main was destroyed upon recommendation of architects in 1958. Only the tower was saved for posterity. The original bell from the tower still remains in place on the north end of the ISU Quad. A model of Old Main is available for viewing in the 1857 Room in the Bone Student Center.

From this single building standing in a lonely prairie, ISU has grown into a beautiful tree shaded campus with many buildings, a faculty of over 1,000 and a student body of nearly 23,000.

In History

The bike trail is a great place to exercise. The trail will take you to Jumer's Chateau.

Welcome to the "Bone" - the center of activity at ISU. You can find anything you need in the Bone, from food, clothes to study areas and the most popular place - cash station! This is connected to Milner Library.

Cook Hall is the oldest existing building on ISU's campus. Built in 1898 during the governorship of Peter Altgeld, Cook Hall was inspired by the governor's passion for German castles on the Rhine River. Originally called the "Gymnasium", the building was built to satisfy America's growing fascination with physical fitness. Cook was renamed in honor of ISNU's (Illinois State Normal University) President John W. Cook (1890-1899). Today it is part of the music department and stands proudly on the Quad of ISU.

The Quad can be a great place to study, lay out or blow bubbles!

There's always someone around when you just need to be silly!

Outside Hovey Hall, George Bush campaigns to hundreds of ISU students before the 1988 presidential election.

In the 70's and 80's, it was the State Schools in the corn-fields, not the private ones in the cities, that produced the highest-yield crop of acting talent. At the last count, six of ISU's former theater students were stars or featured actors in network TV series. Hollywood has never been so close to Normal.

The famous ISU alumni faces you may recognize on TV are Laurie Metcalf of "Roseanne", Gary Cole of "Midnight Caller", Judith Ivey of "Down Home", Terry Kinney of "Thirty Something", Tom Irwin of "My Life and Times" and Yvonne Suhor of "Young Riders". The Illinois State all-star roster also includes actor/director Robert Townsend of "Hollywood Shuffle", Ray Roderick of "Cats" and perhaps the most famous ISU dropout, actor/director John Malkovich, who has shown up everywhere, "Dangerous Liaisons", "Death of a Salesman", "The Sheltering Sky" and "The Object of Beauty."

Most of these individuals were scouted at high school performances in towns such as Edwardsville, Peoria, Pontiac, Benton and assorted Chicago suburbs, then recruited to Illi-inois State's theater department. Here they were coached by four extraordinary faculty members: Jean Scharfenberg, John Kirk, Cal Pritner and Ralph Lane.

Give a round of applause to your famous predecessors. Maybe your name will be added to the list!

SAY NO TO CRACK.

Twas the night before finals,
And all through the college,
The students were praying
for last-minute knowledge.

Most were quiet sleepy,
But none touched their beds,
While visions of essays
Danced in their heads.

Out in the taverns,
A few were still drinking,
And hoping that liquor
Would loose up their thinking.

In my own apartment,
I had been pacing,
And dreading exams
I soon would be facing.

My roommate was speechless,
His nose in his book,
And my comments to him
Drew unfriendly looks.

I drained all the coffee,
And brewed a new pot,
No longer caring
That my nerves were shot.

I stared at my notes,
But my thoughts were muddy,
My eyes went ablur.
I just couldn't study.

"Some pizza might help,"
I said with a shiver,
But each place I called
Refused to deliver.

I'd nearly concluded
That life was too cruel,
With futures depending
On grades had in school,

When all of a sudden,
Our door opened wide,
And Patron Saint Put-It-Off
Ambled inside.

His spirit was careless,
His manner was mellow,
But, seeing our state,
He started to bellow:

"What kind of student
Would make such a fuss,
To toss back at teachers
What they tossed at us?"

"On, Cliff's Notes! On, Cub Notes!
On, Last Year's Exams!
Oh, Wingit and Slingit,
And Last-Minute Crams!"

His message delivered,
He vanished from sight,
But we heard him laughing
Outside in the night.

"Your teachers have pegged you,
So just do your best.
Happy finals to all,
And to all, a good test."

by Tom Naughton

Presenting . . .

You've finally made it! Although it wasn't easy, you've left your friends and family behind and ventured out into the world of college life. Take it from me, a one-time college freshman, it gets much easier from here. It wouldn't be human not to be a little frightened, but this fear will change into excitement as you begin what undoubtedly will be the best years of your life. Through all of the experiences, new directions, and fun, your first year at ISU will be one you'll never forget.

Probably the biggest fear is that you'll be on your own. There will be no one looking over your shoulder to tell you to study or be home on time. You will be responsible for almost every aspect of your life. This responsibility will challenge you to discover many new things about yourself and others. Some of the best learning experiences take place far away from the classroom.

Illinois State University is the perfect place to experience this new feeling of freedom and responsibility. You will find the best of everything in this new world at ISU. In the classroom, you will receive one of the best educations available.

But there's more - sports, clubs, the Greek system, friends, and, of course, parties, all await you. Just remember, through all that you will experience in the coming months and years the opportunities before you will be some of the best in your lifetime. Enjoy them while they last. And, by the way, WELCOME!

This fall, there will be over 5,000 new students arriving at ISU. This special publication was designed with you in mind, the new student on campus. You may be overwhelmed by all the changes taking place in your life, but Who's New at ISU is our way of helping you reach out and make new friends. On the following pages are the names and faces of your classmates, the ISU class of 1995 and transfer students. Take a good look - these are the people with whom you will be working with throughout your college career, in your classes, and in many campus organizations; some will even become your lifetime friends. We're looking forward to seeing you this fall.

Sincerely,

Heidi Bottom, Editor
